ALTICE FRANCE (SFR)

Altice France (SFR) takes note of an ongoing investigation by the Public Prosecutor's Office in Portugal directed against Altice-affiliated individuals as well as external entities.

The Portuguese prosecution authority clarified that its investigation related to harmful practices for which Altice Portugal and its subsidiaries are impacted and therefore victims of fraud by individuals.

While this investigation is being conducted, Altice France has taken pre-emptive measures including the launch of an internal investigation and retention of outside counsel and other advisors to assess whether there are impacts at Altice France and reinforcing the approval process on all procurement, payments, purchase orders and related processes.

Altice France continues to operate its activities in normal course and will continue to conduct business with the highest integrity in the best interest of all stakeholders, with customers and employees at the forefront.
